Notes for CHARLES TIPTON AYERS:

Charles Tiptom Ayers worked as a farmer and logger for Slick Rowland and owned his own small farm on Route 688 Lee County Virginia.

Charles Tipton Ayers born in Lee Co Va. to Daniel Lester Ayers and Lydia Caroline Robinson. He married Hester Mae Chadwell in a double wedding ceremony. The other couple was his sister Effie who married Harvey Chadwell, first cousin to Hester Chadwell. The story is told that Hesters' father, William Carr Chadwell did not approve of the wedding and was going to lock her in her bedroom. So the day before they took their mules and eloped. Supposedly they went to Cumberland Gap, Tn. and were married on mule back.

Another tale told of Grandpa was that when he heard that his brother- in- law, William Littrell and nephew, James Littrell were killed by moonshiners, that he was so mad, that he poked holes in his pants pockets with his pistols.

His brother in law was Sheriff of Lee Co Va at the time. Later on another nephew Creed Chadwell became Sheriff of Lee Co Va. Creed Chadwell was followed by another great nephew, R.V. Chadwell, who died after 16 years in office as the sheriff.

Once Grandpa was ambushed on his way home from work. He used all bullets in both guns, wounding the attacker once. Then ran to a local grocery store where he attempted to buy more ammunition, but was talked out of it and taken home.

Woodbine school was in a one room church house built on land donated by Charles Tipton (Tip) Ayers and his brother James. The building itself was built by Daniel Lester Ayers and his sons Charles and James Ayers. The Church was used as a school from the 1930's til late in the 1950's. The Church was called Mount Carmel of the Methodist denomination.

Notes for SHULUS STILLSS AYERS:

Born in Lee Co Va in the Caylor area to Charles Tipton Ayers and Hester May Chadwell, parents home located on present day Route 688 off route 690. He had five sisters and three brothers (two brothers Rufus and Troy died in less than one year) , Vesta Jeanette, Dorothy, Effie Elizabeth, Mossie Bee, Lydia Ann and John Daniel Lester . His schooling was little to none or the equivalent of the third grade. He grew upon a farm and then during the 1930's he worked for the CCC doing highway maintenance in Lee Co Va. About 1942, he started work on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad (Now CSX) and worked for them until his death in 1962, also bought some land from his uncles on route 688 just down The road from his parents and built a house. His work on the railroad was in a workgroup in Ky area, then as section assistant Foreman. Later, he became a foreman in the Cawood, Ky area and in Big Stone Gap, Virginia, then to Middlesboro and Pineville, Ky portion of the L & N lines. He and HESSIE LEE BROOKS had seven boys, six born in Lee Co Virginia and one in Big Stone Gap, Virginia. They say he committed suicide but the night he died he had been to a wrestling match and came home too drunk to have rigged the fatal cable into a hanging noose. He had also been fooling around with the wife of a deputy sheriff of Middlesboro. There was never enough evidence produced to disapprove the suicide theory advanced by the sheriff's office. Of Course, this is my opinion . Others may say that's just a boys dream. I was the one who saw my father come home that night with my youngest brother, who was nine at the time. I was also the one who found him and took him down from the tree early the next morning. I , also, know that there was some visitors at the house after I had gone to bed that night. These night visitors were never identified. At home that night was myself, my parents and two other brothers , Troy and Roger. Even the newspaper never got all the information correct.

Notes for HESSIE LEE BROOKS:

The daughter of Henly Tipton Brooks and Ollie Parks from Claiborne Co. Tn but had lived in Caylor sinnce about 1920. Her father owned a General Merchandise store at Caylor until his death in 1957, Married Shulus Ayers and had seven sons, Billie Charles, Jim Marvin Eugene, Jerry Shulus Brooks, Ford Junior , Jackie Leamon, Troy Lee and Roger Wayne. They were divorced after the birth of Jim their second son but later remarried before the birth of Jerry, their third son. She had some mental problems durning most of her life and was in and out of the state mental institution. She seemed to have been fairly stable the last few years of her life and died just 3 months after Shulus. She had also had incurable cancer the last few years of her life. I have heard a lot of things said about my mother but I always knew her to be a loving and kind mother, who would do anything for her children. We never seemed to have had much in growing up. I do remember getting cast off clothing and toys from the more affluent cousins but that was little and at infrequent intervals.
